

Treasury of the 78's: English Choral Music

(List of Records Used with Label and Matrix Information)

This list is my best attempt at cataloguing and compiling the information for the program Treasury of the 78's: English Choral Music, aired on KPFA on July 27th, 1962. The program contains a variety of recordings of English Choral music by various composers, lent by the Archives of the Music Library at the University of California. No reference is made to the list of the specific items used (only that they come from the Anthology of English Church Music), nor the dates of recording, and that is precisely what I have compiled today.
